International and North American Conference 2018: San Francisco, USA Sunday 21 – Wednesday 24 October 2018

Location

The InterContinental Mark Hopkins hotel, San Francisco, will be the venue for Morison KSi's 2018 International and North American Conference. San Francisco, or "the city that knows how", offers a wealth of historic, artistic and cultural delights, making this a must-attend event for all member firms

Professional programme

The conference agenda will focus on networking, knowledge-sharing and uncovering business opportunities within our expanding North American region as well as internationally. The agenda will include a range of technical and soft skill sessions as well as an insight to some of our members' successes.

Social programme

Delegates and companions will enjoy a dynamic social programme, exploring some of the best sights in and around this diverse city, including the magnificent Golden Gate Bridge, iconic cable cars and colourful Victorian houses, or "painted ladies".
